Information Bulletin

LOC President's Message Mr. Habib Cherif

Dear Finswimmers,

We are delighted to invite you to the 2025 CMAS African and Arab Finswimming Age group Competition, which will take place in Tunis, Tunisia, from September 2nd to 7th, 2025.

This prestigious competition is open to all Arab finswimmers, offering a unique opportunity to compete against top athletes from the region and beyond.

The African and Arab age group will feature events for Youth categories, providing a valuable platform for both rising talents and experienced competitors to showcase their skills.

With its stunning beaches, rich history, and vibrant atmosphere, Tunis is the perfect setting for this international celebration of finswimming.

We look forward to welcoming you to Tunisia for an unforgettable experience of high-level competition, camaraderie, and cultural exchange.

See you in Tunisia!

WELCOME TO TUNIS

Tunis, the capital and largest city of Tunisia, is located on the Gulf of Tunis, nestled between Lake Tunis and the port of La Goulette.

As the political and administrative heart of the country, Tunis plays a central role in Tunisia's commercial and cultural life.

The city's architecture reflects its rich history, shaped by civilizations ranging from the Phoenicians and Romans to the Arabs, Ottomans, and French.

One of its most iconic landmarks is the Zitouna Mosque, the largest of its kind in Tunisia. Dating back to the 8th century, it has long been a defining feature of the city's skyline

Carthage was an ancient Phoenician city located in present-day Tunisia, about 15 km from the center of Tunis. Founded in the 9th century BCE, it became a powerful maritime empire and a major rival of Rome. The city was known for its advanced trade network, naval power, and military strength, especially during the Punic Wars. Carthage was ultimately destroyed by Rome in 146 BCE but later rebuilt as a Roman colony. Today, its ruins are a UNESCO World Heritage Site, showcasing remnants of its rich history and influence.

Sidi Bou Said is a picturesque coastal village in Tunisia, located about 20 km from the center of Tunis. Known for its charming white and blue architecture, it offers stunning views of the Mediterranean Sea. The village is famous for its artistic atmosphere, cobbled streets, and traditional cafés. A popular tourist destination, Sidi Bou Said blends history, culture, and breathtaking scenery, making it a must-visit spot.

Gammarth is a luxurious seaside town in Tunisia, located about 20 km north of Tunis. Known for its upscale resorts, sandy beaches, and vibrant nightlife, it is a popular destination for both tourists and locals. Gammarth offers a mix of relaxation and entertainment, with high-end hotels, golf courses, and beachfront restaurants overlooking the Mediterranean Sea

Azur City Mall is a modern shopping center in Tunis, offering a wide range of international and local brands, restaurants, and entertainment options. It features a spacious design, a large food court, and a cinema, making it a popular destination for shopping and leisure. Conveniently located, Azur City provides a vibrant and family-friendly atmosphere for visitors.
